

A CONTEMPORARY TWIST ON SAMUI

A refreshing contrast to the classic island charms, ibis Samui Bophut brings a contemporary touch to the island's rustic backdrop. Bright interiors with soft, clean lines. A modern transformation of an island escape, complemented by warm, friendly service.

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

A fisherman's village transformed into one of Thailand's most favourite island destinations. Nestled amongst the popular islands of Pha Ngan, Tao and Nang Yuan, Samui is famous for its picturesque seascapes and fine white sand beach.

- A peaceful seaside town surrounded by dense coconut groves, Bophut is home to the island's first fisherman's settlement. Its charming beachfront - lined with traditional wooden shop houses and open-air restaurant - makes for an ideal day excursion when not out surfing the tide or exploring the reefs.

- Divers will find a haven in Bophut, as it is a gateway to some of the most spectacular diving sites in the country. If diving is not your favourite, charter speedboats are on call for sightseeing trips to the nearby islands.

BOPHUT AT A GLANCE

A centre of boating activities and home to a charming fisherman's community, Bophut features a number of fascinating attractions, all of which are only a few minutes from the hotel.
